

BARBERANI AMARO CERBERUS

TASTING NOTES

look

Brilliant bronze color with amber edges

smell

Intense and complex!

A full spectrum of notes in the amaro orientale category: coffee, juniper, clove, cinnamon, black peppercorn, sambuco flower, cola, black licorice, star anise and more...

taste

On the palate this amaro is quite hot. Clean with an almost a dusty tannic quality. The finish is never-ending. Licorice and star anise persist infinitely.

discuss

Cerberus was developed by historic Umbrian winery Barberani alongside amaro connoisseurs as an optimal digestivo as well as a principle cocktail ingredient.
